Performance Linked Incentive - This payout is a way to recognize and reward exemplary performance of high-performing and ambitious professionals. Employees can make use of this aspect in their best interests as it allows achieving a financial advantage in terms of a maximum payout being over 100% of PLI (up to 120%). As per the Company appraisal policy, your yearly performance review and appraisal will be held in the month of July 2027.

Relocation Reimbursement - This is payable on actual bills produced at the time of reimbursement and is retractable if you resign within 12 months from the date of joining.

Probation Period - For the first 4 months from the date of your joining the Company, you will be under probation. Based on your performance during this period which will be subject to evaluation, your employment shall be either confirmed or if your performance is found unsatisfactory, your probation will be extended.

Notice Period Post Joining - Your employment is contingent on a successful background/reference check that the Company may conduct at its discretion. For conducting background/reference checks by the Company, all the documents listed in Annexure must be provided by you by uploading clear and legible copies of all the listed documents on the website of our background verification agency, the link of which will be shared with you on the day of joining or before. Such uploading must be completed by you within one day from your date of joining specified above.

In the event you fail to do so, the Company shall, at its sole discretion:

- Withdraw this Offer Letter.
- Terminate your services without liability in case you have already joined the Company.

This employment is terminable by you after giving advance written notice as follows:

- 4 months, if you choose to leave the Company within 30 days from Date of joining.
- 3 months if you choose to leave the Company after 30 days but within 60 days from the date of joining; and
- 2 months if you choose to leave after 60 days from the date of joining

At its sole discretion, the Company may consider accepting payment in lieu of a notice period not served by an employee. If an employee has any unutilized leaves, adjustment of the same against any shortfall in the notice period may also be considered at the Company's sole discretion.
